1. Introduction

1.1 What this is

This is your Cardholder Agreement. It replaces any other Cardholder Agreements we may have provided you. It sets out the terms that govern your President's Choice Financial Mastercard® Account. When you use your Account, it means you accept all of the terms stated in this Agreement.

1.2 Scope

Additional terms regarding your Account are set out in the following documents:

- Your application,
- The Disclosure Summary delivered with your Card,
- The card carrier delivered with your Card,
- Additional notices or disclosure documents that we may provide to you.

The above documents, along with the terms contained in this document, form your Cardholder Agreement. If there is ever a conflict between any of the above-mentioned documents and the terms of this document, the most current version of these terms will govern.

The Cardholder Agreement applies to your President's Choice Financial Mastercard® Account, and any card, convenience cheque or other device or technology issued for the Account at any time.

1.3 Why it is important

This is an important document because it outlines your rights and responsibilities as a Cardholder. Reading it, you can learn how your President's Choice Financial Mastercard® works, including how interest is calculated and how your payments are applied. It also tells you what to do if you believe there is an error on your statement or if your Card is lost or stolen. Knowing these things can help you save time and money as well as protect your information and your credit rating.

1.4 Changes

We may change each and any provision of this Cardholder Agreement (including any of the documents referenced above in section 1.2) at any time.

Notice of the change will be provided to you, in accordance with applicable laws, at the most recent e-mail address or mailing address we have for you. Using your Account once a change has become effective will signify that you agreed to the change.

Changes may include, but not be limited to, the interest rates and Fees, how your Account works or features that may be included, added or removed.

A change may apply both to the unpaid balance on your Account and to all new transactions.

1.5 What you need to do

Read this Cardholder Agreement including the documents listed in section 1.2 thoroughly and be sure you understand how they apply to you. If you have any questions, call a customer service representative at the number on the back of your card.

You should also read the Loblaw Companies Limited Privacy Policy, included with your new card or available at <https://www.loblaw.ca/en/privacy.html>. It explains how we collect, use and disclose your personal information.

Keep these documents in a secure place for future reference.

2. Reading and understanding this document

We have tried to make it easy to read and understand this document. Here are some things that will help.

2.1 Organization

To make things easier, information is presented in the order you will use it. ### 3. Your agreement with us

3.1 You understand the terms of this Cardholder Agreement

Using your Account means that you understand, accept and agree to the terms contained in this Cardholder Agreement, and you understand we may change it.

Using your Account also means that you understand and agree to terms of the loyalty program applicable to your Account.

The terms of your applicable loyalty program are contained in a separate agreement. For the most current version of the loyalty program terms, visit the legal information section at pcfinancial.ca or call the number on the back of your card.

3.2 As Primary Cardholder you are responsible

As the Primary Cardholder, you are solely liable under this Cardholder Agreement. That means you are responsible for all amounts owing on your Account, including any amounts incurred on the Account by any Additional Cardholders, and for complying with this Cardholder Agreement.

In legal terms, this Cardholder Agreement is binding on you and your personal and legal representatives as well as your and their successors and assignees.

You are also responsible for ensuring that any Additional Cardholders on your Account understand this Cardholder Agreement as well as the Loblaw Privacy Policy (see section 18.1 for more details) and the loyalty program terms and conditions. You must ensure they know that these documents apply to them, and use the Account in accordance with this Cardholder Agreement.

3.3 Additional Cardholders have rights and obligations

Additional Cardholders may be permitted to change their own information on the Account or request a replacement Card, but are otherwise not authorized to give instructions to us with respect to the Account. For instance, an Additional Cardholder would not be able to change your information such as your address or request or consent to an increase in the credit limit or close the Account. We may, however, provide information about the Account to the Additional Cardholder as described in section 18.1.2.

4. Use of your Account

When you use your Account, we are lending you money, so we have certain rights and you have certain responsibilities.

As soon as you receive your Welcome Kit, you must sign any signature panel on any Card in your name and ensure that any Additional Cardholders on the Account sign their Cards.

When any Cardholder on the Account pays for goods or services with the Card number but without presenting their Card (such as for purchases by telephone, mail or online) or where a signature, PIN or password is not required, the legal effect is the same as if the Card had been presented and the sales slip was signed or a PIN or password entered.

You may be required to enter additional information to complete certain online transactions. We cannot stop payment on Convenience Cheques, and are not able to stop any other charges to your Account that appear to have been authorized.

4.1 Our rights

We may choose not to authorize any transaction at any time for any reason. We may also request additional information to evaluate a transaction request or to evaluate and adjust the rates of interest, credit limit or other features of your Account.

If we suspect unauthorized or fraudulent use of your Account, we may block use of your Account without prior notice to you. This means you will not be able to use your Account without contacting us.

We may suspend, cancel or close your Account at any time for any reason, without notice.

We are not responsible for any damages related to your Account, including special, indirect or consequential damages, even if they were foreseeable, for example, if your Card is not honoured, a Convenience Cheque is not accepted or your Account cannot be used.

We may, on occasion, send a renewal or replacement Card to any Cardholder on the Account, without your further consent or notice. We may also decide not to renew or replace a Card for any reason.

We may limit the number of Additional Cardholders per Account.

There are certain items, such as Cards, which we may, at our sole discretion, refuse to mail to an address that is not in Canada.

Our failure to exercise any of our rights does not mean that we cannot or will not exercise those rights on another occasion.

4.2 Your responsibilities

You promise to pay us for all amounts charged to your Account. You are responsible even if these amounts owing are incurred before you activate your Account or after the expiry of any Card or after the closure or suspension of your Account.

You are liable for all of the charges whether they were made by you, an Additional Cardholder, or someone else that you or an Additional Cardholder permitted to use the Account. You are responsible to keep your Account in Good Standing.

4.2.1 You will pay on time

You agree to pay at least the minimum payment by the payment due date shown on your statement each month.

4.2.2 You will ensure the Account is used appropriately

The Account is designed for personal use, so you agree you will not use it as a business or commercial account.

You will ensure that you, or any Additional Cardholder on the Account, do not use the Account for any unlawful purpose, such as the purchase of goods or services prohibited by law. You will also ensure that it is not used in ways currently prohibited by us, for example:

- allowing any non-Cardholders to use the Account,
- obtaining a refund for goods or services purchased on the Account in any form other than a credit on the Account,
- using the Account if you are bankrupt or insolvent or are unlikely to be able to pay your minimum payment on time.

4.2.3 You will keep the Account secure

You must ensure that you and any of your Additional Cardholders maintain the secrecy of any PIN or password for your Account (which includes passwords or access codes used to access your Account online or to complete online transactions).

You and your Additional Cardholders must NOT:

- write any PIN or password on the Cards or on statements for your Account,
- keep them written anywhere such as in a wallet or at home,

- write your card number and any PIN or password together in any document,
- store them in an electronic medium,
- disclose them to anyone, including our call centre or any third party, or in response to any e-mails, either on purpose or by accident.

If you or any of your Additional Cardholders do not properly safeguard any PIN or password for your Account, you may be liable for unauthorized transactions on your Account.

4.2.4 You will avoid Credit Balances

You should not allow a Credit Balance to occur on your Account except due to a correction or to a refund for goods or services purchased on the Account. Credit Balances on your Account do not earn interest and are not insured by the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation (CDIC). We can take reasonable measures to reduce or eliminate your Credit Balance. We are not responsible if you are, for any reason, unable to access a Credit Balance on the Account.

4.2.5 You will keep your information current with us

You must provide us prompt notice of any change in your personal information, including any change in your or any Additional Cardholder's legal name, occupation, telephone number, residential address, and your mailing address if it is different from your residential address. If your mailing address is a rural route or post office box you must also provide us your current physical address. If you have chosen to receive electronic notifications regarding your statements and other related correspondence by e-mail, you must also notify us of any changes to your e-mail address. You should also notify us if other information relating to your contact information changes.

We may request that you confirm or update your personal information at any time, and you must respond to that request.

You are still responsible when we can't contact you. If we send a statement or a notice to you and it is returned because of an invalid address, we may suspend use of the Account and we may not issue further statements or notices to you until we receive a correct or new address from you, and we may suspend use of the Account until we have received the updated information. You are responsible for paying all amounts owing on your Account even if you do not receive statements due to an invalid address or e-mail address.

5. Unauthorized use of your Account / lost or stolen Cards

Your liability may be limited in situations where use of your Account was unauthorized.

5.1 Advise us immediately

We will consider that you have authorized all transactions on your Account until you advise us otherwise.

You must inform us immediately about any actual or suspected loss, theft or unauthorized use of any Card, PIN or password or any other unauthorized use of your Account.

Contact us toll free at 1 866 246 7262 (or collect at 647 426 1343 if you are outside Canada and the U.S.). We may take whatever steps we consider necessary to recover any affected Card, and additionally may report the loss, theft or unauthorized use to the appropriate authorities.

5.2 You will not be responsible for unauthorized transactions, if you take care

You will not be responsible for an unauthorized transaction using your Account, provided:

- your Account is in Good Standing,
- you have exercised reasonable care in safeguarding your Card, PIN, passwords and your Account information (as described in section 4.2.3 above),
- you have not reported two or more unauthorized events in the last twelve months,
- no Cardholder benefits from the transaction,
- you report the unauthorized transaction to us as soon as you become aware of it, and no later than within 30 days from the date of the statement on which the transaction first appears, and
- you co-operate fully with our investigation.

Even if you do not meet these criteria, if the unauthorized transaction was made using a lost or stolen Card, account information, or PIN on your Account, the maximum amount you will be responsible for is the first $50 of transactions that occur between the time of the loss or theft and the time that you notify us. However, if we determine that you have demonstrated gross negligence (or gross fault, if you are a resident of Quebec) in safeguarding your Card, account information or PIN, then you are liable for and must pay the full amount that was charged to your Account.

You will not be liable for any unauthorized transactions made on your Account after you have notified us that any Card, account information, or PIN has been lost or stolen, has otherwise been used in an unauthorized manner or is at risk of being used in an unauthorized manner.

6. Secure Account access

6.1 Setting and changing PINs

When you activate your new Account, you and any Additional Cardholders will be required to set a PIN. When setting or changing your PIN, you and any Additional Cardholders must not select a PIN that is easily identifiable, such as a birth date, a phone number, or a PIN that you use for any other accounts. The PIN you select must also comply with instructions we provide for setting or changing your PIN.

If you have forgotten your PIN, need to set a new PIN or wish to change your PIN, you can do so by calling us at the telephone number listed on the back of your card.

6.2 Establishing online access

As the Primary Cardholder, we recommend that you register to access your Account online. This will allow you to monitor activity on your Account in a timely manner as well as make changes and updates to your Account. Visit our website pfinancial.ca for information on how to register.

Your Additional Cardholders may also establish online access, monitor activity on the Account and manage their information as described in section 18.1.2 of this Cardholder Agreement.

7. Types of transactions

Different types of transactions are treated differently. The main types of transactions that will appear on your Account are: purchases, cash advances, interest and Fees.

7.1 Purchases

Purchases include all goods and services purchased with your Account, including Cash-Like transactions, plus any applicable Foreign Currency Conversion Markups (if you make purchases in a foreign currency), and the Premiums for optional insurance on your Account.

7.2 Cash advances

Cash advances are transactions in which funds are advanced by us and charged to your Account, and include:

- obtaining cash at a bank machine that accepts Mastercard,
- obtaining cash in person at a teller of a Mastercard issuing institution,
- using a Convenience Cheque,
- completing a Balance Transfer,
- any applicable Foreign Currency Conversion Markup (if you obtain a cash advance in a foreign currency).

7.2.1 Conditions for cash advances

The following conditions apply to cash advances:

- We may limit the number and amount of cash advances and decline them for any reason, including because the advance would exceed the limit we have set for cash advances on your Account or because your Account is not in Good Standing.
- All cash advances will be fulfilled in the order we process them (which may not reflect the order in which we receive them).
- Additional terms may also be set out in the terms of any cash advance offer and on your card carrier.
- Purchases made through cash advances (such as by paying a merchant with a Convenience Cheque) are not eligible for dispute resolution through our processes, are not covered by Extended Warranty or Purchase Assurance and do not earn loyalty points unless otherwise specified.

7.3 Interest

Different rates of interest may apply to different types of transactions.

The rates applicable to your Account, other than promotional rates of interest, are shown in the Disclosure Summary. The most current rates will also appear on each statement for your Account.

We may change the rates of interest applicable to your Account at any time for any reason. In each case, you will be provided with the required notice of the change, unless your Account ceases to be in Good Standing, in which case the default rate(s) of interest will apply to your Account as described in section 16.

7.4 Fees

All Fees on your Account, including the Fees for cash advances and for Cash-Like transactions, are treated in the same manner as purchases.

7.5 Promotional offers

You may occasionally be eligible for certain promotional offers. By participating in a promotional offer, you are subject to any additional terms set out in the promotional offer, and those terms also form part of this Cardholder Agreement.

7.5.1 Promotional items

When a promotional interest rate offer applies to a particular transaction, that transaction will be referred to as a “promotional item.” The rate of interest that applies to promotional items (a “promotional rate of interest”) is typically lower than the purchase and cash advance interest rates, but for a limited amount of time. The promotional rate of interest will no longer apply when any of the following occurs:

- the promotional offer term expires,
- you do not meet or no longer meet all of the specific terms outlined in the promotional offer,
- when your Account is in default (see section 16 for details).

When the promotional rate of interest no longer applies, the current cash advance or purchase interest rate, as applicable, will apply to any outstanding unpaid promotional items. If your Account is in default, the applicable default interest rate will apply.

8. Pre-authorized transactions

You may, for your own convenience, pre-authorize merchants to automatically place a purchase on your Account, typically on a recurring basis.

8.1 You are responsible for all pre-authorized transactions

You are responsible for all pre-authorized transactions posted to your Account, even those that may be posted after you have requested that your Account be closed or you have requested that a merchant cease posting these pre-authorized transactions to your Account.

8.2 You must advise merchants of changes on your Account

When a new Card number or expiry date is issued to you, or to any Additional Cardholder on the Account, you must advise any merchants with whom you have set up pre-authorized transactions of the new Card number and expiry date.

8.3 Some merchants may be automatically notified of changes to your Account

Certain merchants may register with Mastercard Worldwide Inc. to receive automatic updates regarding your Account, such as changes to your Card number, expiry date and status of your Account. Unless you opt out by calling us at the number on the back of your card, those merchants will receive those updates. Since not all merchants register to receive this service from Mastercard Worldwide Inc., you remain responsible for updating merchants with whom you have set up pre-authorized transactions.

9. Transactions in a foreign currency

9.1 How we convert foreign currency transactions

If you make or return purchases, take cash advances or receive credits or refunds in a currency other than Canadian dollars, then the amount of the transaction will be converted to Canadian dollars before being posted to your Account. Credits to your Account in a foreign currency will also be converted from the foreign currency to Canadian dollars. Each conversion to Canadian dollars will be made at exchange rates determined by Mastercard International Incorporated in effect on the date that we process the transaction. This exchange rate may be different from the rate in effect on the transaction date. For transactions made in certain foreign currencies, the foreign currency will be converted first to U.S. dollars, then to Canadian dollars.

9.2 Foreign Currency Conversion Markup percentage for foreign currency transactions

When a transaction in a foreign currency is posted to your Account, you will be charged a Foreign Currency Conversion Markup which is a percentage of the amount of the transaction that is charged for purchases and cash advances and deducted from refunds and credits. The Foreign Currency Conversion Markup percentage is disclosed in your Disclosure Summary. The Mastercard exchange rate and Foreign Currency Conversion Markup percentage are incorporated into the conversion rate and the Canadian dollar transaction amount shown on your statement, and are treated, in all respects, like the type of transaction (a purchase or a cash advance) they pertain to.

9.3 Refunds and credits in a foreign currency

The Foreign Currency Conversion Markup percentage is not returned to you if you receive a refund or credit in a foreign currency. The amount of a purchase and any corresponding refund may differ as a result of the Foreign Currency Conversion Markup percentage and any differences in exchange rates from the date we process the purchase transaction and the date we process the refund transaction. The amount of a purchase may generally be higher than its corresponding refund due to these factors. If the amount of a refund or credit is less than the amount of the original transaction, you are responsible for the difference.

10. Your credit limit

Your credit limit is the maximum amount that you are permitted to charge to your Account. It is disclosed to you on your card carrier and on each statement.

We may set a separate credit limit for different types of transactions, such as a limit for purchases, a limit for cash advances, and another limit for Balance Transfers.

10.1 Do not exceed your limit

Do not let the outstanding balance of transactions on your Account exceed your credit limit. Your available credit decreases by the amounts charged to your Account. We reserve the right to not authorize any use of your Account that would cause you to exceed your credit limit.

However, if we do allow the total you owe on your Account to exceed your credit limit (such as with a merchant hold as described in section 10.2), this does not mean that your credit limit has changed. You remain responsible for, and must immediately pay, any amount that exceeds your credit limit.

Each time your Account is over its credit limit on your statement date, you may be charged the over limit fee shown in the Disclosure Summary.

10.2 Merchant holds impact your available credit

Merchants may request pre-authorization for certain transactions such as hotel or rental car reservations, and the resulting “holds” will decrease your available credit. However, if we authorize the hold and you exceed your credit limit solely as a result of holds placed on your Account, your Account will not be considered to be over the credit limit for purposes of Good Standing and the over limit fee will not be charged to your Account.

10.3 No transaction can exceed your credit limit

The amount of any transaction (such as the amount of a purchase or a Convenience Cheque) cannot exceed your credit limit, even if you have accumulated a Credit Balance on your Account.

10.4 You may request a change to your limit

You may ask for a credit limit increase or decrease online by logging in to your registered Account at pcfinancial.ca or by calling the toll-free number on the back of your card. We may not allow you to decrease your credit limit below your Account balance plus any outstanding authorizations at the time of your request. Credit limit increases are subject to credit approval, and we may decline or authorize only a portion of any credit limit increase you request.

10.5 We may change your limit

We may decrease your credit limit at any time without prior notice. We may increase your credit limit at your request or with your express consent.

11. Your statement

Your monthly statement provides detailed Account information. Review it and report errors promptly.

11.1 Statement Periods vary

Each statement will normally cover between 28 and 32 days depending on holidays, weekends and the number of days in each month.

11.2 Sometimes you will not receive a statement

We will provide you with a statement for your Account for each Statement Period unless:

- There is no activity on your Account, including no transactions, payments, credit or debit balances on your Account during that Statement Period and there is no outstanding balance.
- There is no activity on your Account and you have been notified that your Account has been suspended or closed due to default and we have demanded payment of the outstanding balance.

- Your Account has an outstanding balance of less than $10, there have been no transactions or payments, and no interest or Fees are being incurred or accrued on your Account, in which case we may choose to provide you with a statement once every 3-month period.

11.3 You must report statement errors to us

If you notice any errors on your statement, you must notify us within 30 days of the statement date. See section 19 “How to contact us” for our contact information. If you do not notify us within 30 days of the statement date, then the statement will be deemed complete and accurate, except for any improper credits to the Account (which we may reverse at any time) or any Balance Transfers that are still being processed.

11.4 Missing statements do not relieve you of your responsibility

You agree to continue to make payments in accordance with this Cardholder Agreement even if we are delayed or prevented from providing your statement to you due to a change in your address or e-mail address, a postal strike, an online failure, an inability to communicate with you electronically or for any other reason. During any such period, you must contact us or check your Account balance online, to obtain the information required to meet your payment obligations, and to keep your Account current and in Good Standing.

12. Interest on your Account

You can avoid being charged interest if you:

- always pay your entire current statement balance in full each month by its payment due date, and
- do not use your Account to take cash advances.

12.1 Interest-free grace period on new purchases

No interest will be charged on the following items that are shown for the first time on your current statement, if you pay the entire balance on this statement in full by the payment due date:

- new purchases, including new Cash-Like transactions,
- the Foreign Currency Conversion Markup applicable to those new purchases,
- all Fees, and optional insurance Premiums.

However, if you do not pay the entire statement balance in full by the payment due date, then the interest-free grace period no longer applies to these items and interest will be charged starting from the date of the transaction, and will appear on your next statement.

There is no interest-free grace period on cash advances or the Foreign Currency Conversion Markup on cash advances.

12.2 How we calculate interest

12.2.1 Some terms we use

To help you understand how we calculate interest, first we'll explain two terms we use: “daily interest rate” and “average daily balance”.

The daily interest rate for each type of Interest-Bearing Transaction is shown on your statement. The daily interest rate is calculated by dividing the applicable annual interest rate by the number of days in the year (365 days, except in a leap year, when it is 366 days).

For each type of Interest-Bearing Transaction, the average daily balance is determined by adding together the balance on your Account for that type of Interest-Bearing Transaction each day during the applicable Statement Period, and dividing the total by the number of days in the Statement Period.

12.2.2 Calculations

On your statement date, for each type of Interest-Bearing Transaction, interest is calculated and charged as follows:

- For balances carried over from the previous Statement Period (including Billed interest for purchases but not including Billed interest for cash advances or Fees) and any new cash advances shown on the current statement, interest for the current Statement Period is calculated by multiplying together the applicable (i) average daily balance, (ii) daily interest rate, and (iii) the number of days in the current Statement Period.
- If you did not pay your previous statement balance in full by the payment due date, then interest will also be calculated for the previous Statement Period for any items that were shown for the first time on that statement and to which an interest-free grace period no longer applies. This interest is calculated by multiplying together (i) the average daily balance of those items during the previous Statement Period, (ii) the daily interest rate, and (iii) the number of days in the previous Statement Period.
- All of the interest calculated for each type of Interest-Bearing Transaction is added together, and the total is added to your Account balance at the end of your Statement Period. There is no interest on previously Billed interest for cash advances or Fees.

13. Disputing charges

13.1 Work with the merchant

If you have problems with any product or service purchased through the use of your Account, you must settle the problem directly with the merchant.

13.2 Keep making payments while working with the merchant

You must continue to make payments to your Account while you are resolving the problem directly with the merchant. If you are expecting a merchant to apply a credit to your Account, monitor your Account closely, and if the credit does not appear within 30 days, contact us by signing into your online account or call the number on the back of your card.

13.3 Credits for disputed charges

If you have disputed a charge on your Account and we receive a credit from the merchant, any rights and claims that you have with respect to that disputed amount are automatically assigned to us. This means we will apply any settled dispute amounts to your Account.

14. Payments

Payments must be made in Canadian dollars and may not exceed the amount owed on the Account. You may pay your Account balance in full at any time using a variety of payment methods as indicated on your statement or as we may make available to you. We do not accept cash payments.

If you do not pay the balance in full, the requirements described below must be met to keep your Account in Good Standing.

14.1 Minimum payment requirements

For each Statement Period you must pay at least the minimum payment due shown on your statement by the payment due date shown on your statement.

14.1.1 Minimum payment due

The minimum payment due is any past due amounts, plus:

- if your statement balance is more than $10, the greater of:
  - $10,
  - 2.2% of your total statement balance (5% for new accounts issued to Quebec residents since August 1, 2019, and for all other accounts held by Quebec residents: 3% effective on August 1, 2021, 3.5% effective on August 1, 2022, 4% effective on August 1, 2023, 4.5% effective on August 1, 2024, and 5% effective on August 1, 2025); or
  - the interest charges and Fees Billed on your current statement plus $1, or
- if your statement balance is $10 or less, the full amount.

14.1.2 Payment due date

Your payment due date will be shown on your statement each month. Your payment due date may vary but will be a minimum of 21 days from your statement date.

14.2 Payment methods

You are responsible for selecting a payment method that ensures your payment is received and applied to your Account by the payment due date. Disruptions or delays by the postal service or electronic communications do not relieve you of this responsibility.

Payments, particularly those made by cheque or in a bank branch, can take more than a week to clear. Generally, payments are applied to your Account on the day that we receive them provided they are received during business hours on a banking day in Ontario. Otherwise, they will be applied to your Account on the next banking day.

Regardless of the method of payment that you choose, your available credit limit may not reflect your payment until your payment has cleared.

14.3 Credits from merchants are not payments

If you return a purchase and we receive a credit from the merchant, we will deduct the amount of the merchant credit from the balance owing on your Account.

However, the credit will not be treated like a payment made by you. The credit will not count towards your minimum payment due or towards payment in full of your statement balance. The credit may not necessarily be applied against the item for which you received the credit. If we have charged you any interest on a purchase that was returned and for which a merchant credit was applied to your Account, we may not refund this interest to you.

15. How we apply payments to your Account

15.1 Payment amounts up to your minimum payment

For payments up to your minimum payment, the amount will be applied to your Account balance in the following order:

- first to interest,
- second to Fees, and
- the remainder, if any, to transactions on the Account, starting with those that have been shown on a statement. Within each type of transaction on the Account, payment amounts, up to your minimum payment, will be applied starting with the items with the lowest rate of interest to the items with the highest rate of interest.

15.2 Payment amounts exceeding your minimum payment

Any payment amount that exceeds your minimum payment will be applied against the balance owing on your Account in proportion to the amount of each part of your Account balance that has a different interest rate, in the following order:

- first to any unpaid amounts that have been shown on a statement, based on the proportion of the particular amounts to the total remaining statement balance,
- second to any new amounts on your Account, that are not on your current statement, based on the proportion of the particular amount to the remaining balance owing on your Account.

The remainder of the payment, if any, will become a Credit Balance on your Account.

15.3 Application of Credit Balances

In the event that you have a Credit Balance on your Account, the Credit Balance will be applied to any new transactions in the order in which they are posted to your Account.

15.4 Acceptance of payments

We cannot stop or reverse any payment made to your Account.

We may accept late payments, partial payments and payments marked "paid in full" or with similar wording without losing any rights we have by law or under this Cardholder Agreement to recover the amounts owed to us on the Account.

16. Default

You will be in default under this Cardholder Agreement and your Account will not be in Good Standing if any of the following occur:

- you do not make your minimum payment by the payment due date for two consecutive billing periods,
- you or any Additional Cardholder on the Account uses the Account in a manner that is prohibited by us or by law or in an inappropriate manner,
- you or any Additional Cardholder on the Account do not comply with any other term of this Cardholder Agreement,
- you become bankrupt or insolvent.

If you are in default under this Cardholder Agreement:

- the applicable default interest rate(s) disclosed in the Disclosure Summary, will apply to all of your unpaid balances on your Account (including promotional items), as of the first day of the second consecutive Statement Period for which payment has not been made

- any existing promotional offer will no longer apply and:
  - promotional items that were purchases will be treated like purchases in all respects, and
  - promotional items that were cash advances will be treated like cash advances in all respects.
- we can require immediate payment of all amounts owing on your Account upon providing the required notice, if any,
- we can offset balances from any other Account you have with us, any of our affiliated companies or any third-party company offering products under a Loblaws Inc. brand, and use it to pay the amount that you owe us, without notice to you,
- in addition, you must pay all legal costs that we incur to collect or attempt to collect the payment from you.

17. Cancellation

17.1 Either party may cancel this Cardholder Agreement

We may cancel this Cardholder Agreement, or close or suspend access to your Account, at any time without telling you in advance. We may refuse to honour any transaction including a Balance Transfer request or Convenience Cheque written on your Account, either before or after cancellation, closure or suspension.

You may also close your Account by telling us in writing by sending a letter to the address noted in section 19 “How to contact us” or calling us at the number on the back of your card.

17.2 You remain responsible for all amounts owing

If your Account is closed or suspended, you remain responsible for all amounts owing on the Account, including any additional interest and pre-authorized payments that may be posted to your Account, and this Cardholder Agreement will remain in effect until you pay us all such amounts.

You are responsible for contacting all merchants with whom you have arranged pre-authorized payments to cancel those payments.

Upon cancellation of this Cardholder Agreement or closure or suspension of your Account, you will no longer be able to receive credit from us.

17.3 You must destroy all Cards and Convenience Cheques

We own all Cards and Convenience Cheques issued on your Account. Upon closure or suspension of your Account, you must immediately and securely destroy all Cards and unused Convenience Cheques issued on your Account in accordance with our instructions or, if we ask you to do so, return them to us.

22. FOR RESIDENTS OF QUEBEC:

Additional clauses apply.

References to the “merchant” below shall refer to President's Choice Bank. Section 16 “Default” provides that “If you are in default under this Cardholder Agreement, [...] we can require immediate payment of all amounts owing on your Account upon providing the required notice, if any”.

22.1 Clauses required under the Consumer Protection Act

(Clause of forfeiture of benefit of the term)

Before availing himself of this clause, the merchant must forward the consumer a notice in writing and unless he is exempted in accordance with section 69 of the General Regulation, he must forward him a statement of account.

Within 30 days following the receipt by the consumer of the notice and, where necessary, of the statement of account, the consumer may:

- (a) either remedy the fact that he is in default;
- (b) or present an application to the court to have the terms and conditions of payment prescribed in this contract changed.

(Open credit contract for the use of a credit card)

- (1) If the consumer uses all or part of the credit extended to make full or partial payment for the purchase or the lease of goods or for a service, the consumer may, if the open credit contract was entered into on the making of and in relation to the sale, lease or service contract, and if the merchant and the open credit merchant collaborated with a view to granting credit, plead against the lender any ground of defence urgeable against the merchant who is the vendor, lessor, contractor or service provider.

The consumer may also, in the circumstances described in the first paragraph, exercise against the open credit merchant, or against the merchant's assignee, any right exercisable against the merchant who is the vendor, lessor, contractor or service provider if that merchant is no longer active or has no assets in Québec, is insolvent or is declared bankrupt. The open credit merchant or the merchant's assignee is then responsible for the performance of the obligations of the merchant who is the vendor, lessor, contractor or service provider up to the amount of, as the case may be, the debt owed to the open credit merchant at the time the contract is entered into, the debt owed to the assignee at the time it was assigned to him or the payment the open credit merchant received if he assigned the debt.

- (2) A consumer who is solidarily liable with another consumer for the obligations arising from an open credit contract is released from the obligations resulting from any use of the open credit account after notifying the merchant in writing that he will no longer use the credit extended and no longer intends to be solidarily liable for the other consumer's future use of the credit extended in advance, and after providing proof to the merchant, on that occasion, that he informed the other consumer by sending him a written notice to that effect at his last known address or technological address.

Any subsequent payment made by the consumer must be applied to the debts contracted before the notice was sent to the merchant.

- (3) A consumer who has entered into a preauthorized payment agreement with a merchant under which payments are made out of credit obtained under a credit card contract may end the agreement at any time by sending a notice to the merchant.

On receipt of the notice, the merchant must cease to collect the preauthorized payments.

On receipt of a copy of the notice, the card issuer must cease debiting the consumer's account to make payments to the merchant.

- (4) The consumer is not liable for debts resulting from the use of a credit card by a third person after the card issuer has been notified, by any means, of the loss, theft or fraudulent use of the card or of any other use of the card not authorized by the consumer. Even if no notice was given, consumer liability for the unauthorized use of a credit card is limited to $50. The consumer is held liable for the losses incurred by the card issuer if the latter proves that the consumer committed a gross fault as regards the protection of the related personal identification number.

- (5) Without delay at the end of each period, the merchant must send the consumer a statement of account. The merchant is not required to send a statement of account to the consumer at the end of any period if there have been no advances or payments during the period and the outstanding balance at the end of the period is zero.

- (6) If the consumer makes a payment at least equal to the outstanding balance at the end of the preceding period within 21 days after the date of the end of the period, no credit charges may be required from the consumer on that outstanding balance, except as regards money advances. In the case of a money advance, charges may accrue as of the date of the advance until the date of payment.
- (7) The consumer may demand that the merchant send, without charge, a copy of the vouchers for each of the transactions charged to the account during the period covered by the statement. The merchant must send the copy of the vouchers requested within 60 days after the date the consumer's request was sent.
- (8) Until the consumer receives a statement of account at his address or technological address if expressly authorized by the consumer, the merchant must not claim credit charges on the unpaid balance, except as regards money advances.

It is in the consumer's interest to refer to sections 103.1, 104 to 110, 122.1, 123, 123.1, 124, 126, 126.2, 126.3, 127 and 127.1 of the Consumer Protection Act (chapter P-40.1) as well as to section 69 of the General Regulation made under that Act and, where necessary, to communicate with the Office de la protection du consommateur.

22.2 Changes

Section 1.4 "Changes" provides that "We may change each and any provision of this Cardholder Agreement (including any of the documents referenced above in Section 1.2) at any time.”

If we introduce and/or increase the amount chargeable as membership fees, renewal fees or replacement fees for a lost or stolen credit card or if we increase the credit rate, we will send you, at least 30 days before the amendment comes into force, a written notice setting out exclusively the new clause, or the amended clause and the clause as it read formerly, and the date of the coming into force.

If we amend any other clause in the Cardholder Agreement, we will send you, at least 30 days before the amendment comes into force, a written notice drawn up clearly and legibly, setting out exclusively the new clause, or the amended clause and the clause as it read formerly, the date of the coming into force of the amendment and advise you that you may refuse the amendment and cancel the Cardholder Agreement without cost, penalty or cancellation indemnity by sending us a notice to that effect no later than 30 days after the amendment comes into force, if the amendment entails an increase in your obligations or a reduction in our obligations.

22.3 Credit Reporting Agencies

The Cardholder will be entitled to receive no more than the original purchase price or portion of the purchase price of the protected item as recorded on the President's Choice Financial Mastercard® sales receipt. Where a protected item is part of a pair or set, the Cardholder will receive no more than the value of the particular part or parts lost, stolen or damaged regardless of any special value that the item may have as part of an aggregate purchase price of such pair or set.

The Insurer, at its sole option, may elect to: (a) repair, rebuild or replace the item lost or damaged (whether wholly or in part), upon notifying the Cardholder of its intentions to do so within sixty (60) days following receipt of the required proof of loss, or (b) compensate the Cardholder for said item, not exceeding the lesser of the original purchase price thereof and the replacement or repair cost thereof, and subject to the exclusions, terms and limits of liability as stated in this Certificate of Insurance.

Other Insurance: Purchase Assurance coverage is in excess of all other applicable valid warranty, insurance, indemnity or protection available to the Cardholder in respect of the item subject to the claim. The Insurer will be liable only for the excess of the amount of the loss, theft or damage over the amount covered under such other insurance, indemnity or protection and for the amount of any applicable deductible, only if all other coverage has been exhausted and subject to the exclusions, terms and limits of liability set out in this Certificate of Insurance. This coverage will not apply as contributing insurance, notwithstanding any provision in any other insurance, indemnity or protection policies or contracts.

2. Extended Warranty Benefits

In effect when You charge the full cost of covered personal items to Your Account.

Extended Warranty benefits are available automatically, without registration, to provide Cardholders with double the period of repair services otherwise provided by the original manufacturer, in accordance with the terms of the original manufacturer's warranty (excluding any Extended Warranty offered by the manufacturer or any third party), to a maximum of one (1) full year on most items purchased new in Canada, or purchased new worldwide with a President's Choice Financial Mastercard® if there is a warranty valid in Canada (provided that in all cases, automatic coverage is limited to original manufacturer's warranties of five (5) years or less). Items which the Cardholder gives as a gift are also covered; however, the Cardholder, not the recipient of the gift, must make any claim for the benefits. Most original manufacturer's warranties over five (5) years will be covered if registered with the Insurer within the first year after purchase of the item.

To register a purchased item with a warranty over five (5) years for Extended Warranty, the Cardholder must send copies of the vendor sales receipt (if any), customer copy of the President's Choice Financial Mastercard® sales receipt, serial number of the item (if available) and the original manufacturer's warranty which is valid in Canada for the product to the Insurer. - (d) damage resulting from normal wear or tear; or
- (e) items purchased and/or used by or for a business or for commercial gain.

The Extended Warranty will only apply to any parts and/or labour costs resulting from mechanical breakdown or failure of a covered item, or any other obligations that were specifically covered under the terms of the original manufacturer's warranty that is valid in Canada. Bodily injury, property damages, consequential damages, punitive damages, exemplary damages and lawyers' fees are not covered. Coverage is limited to the lesser of the amount charged to Your President's Choice Financial Mastercard® or $10,000.

Other Insurance: Extended Warranty coverage is in excess of all other applicable valid warranty, insurance, indemnity or protection available to the Cardholder in respect of the item subject to the claim. The Insurer will be liable only for the excess of the amount of the loss or damage over the amount covered under such other insurance, indemnity or protection and for the amount of any applicable deductible, only if all other coverage has been exhausted and subject to the exclusions, terms and limits of liability set out in this Certificate of Insurance. This coverage will not apply as contributing insurance, notwithstanding any provision in any other insurance, indemnity or protection policies or contracts.

The Cardholder must keep copies of receipts and other documents described herein to file a valid claim, and shall notify the Insurer by telephone at 1 866 892 8683 immediately after learning of any loss or occurrence. The Insurer, upon receipt of such notice of claim by telephone, will furnish to the Cardholder appropriate claim forms. If such forms are not furnished within fifteen (15) days after the giving of such notice, the Cardholder shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of the Policy as to proof of loss upon submitting, within the time fixed in this Certificate for filing claim forms, written proof covering the occurrence in full detail, the character and the extent of the loss or occurrence for which claim is made.

Failure to furnish such claim form within the time required shall not invalidate nor reduce any claim if it was not reasonably possible to provide such claim form within such time, provided it is furnished as soon as reasonably possible. Prior to proceeding with any repair services, the Cardholder must notify and obtain approval of the repair services and repair facility from the Insurer. At the Insurer's sole discretion, the Cardholder may be required to send, at his or her own expense, the damaged item on which a claim is based to an address designated by the Insurer.

The Insurer's payment made in good faith will discharge the Insurer to the extent of the claim.

Benefits for Cardholder Only: Purchase Assurance and Extended Warranty benefits are provided only to the Cardholder.
